

LUMINARY HIKE

COME SUPPORT OUR COMMUNITY RESOURCE AND CELEBRATE A WWC DECEMBER TRADITION!

As you meander through the forest on a candle-lit path, you'll enjoy the serenity of the forest at night and experience the power of nature! Enjoy a warm fire, perhaps gaze at the night sky and view the Geminid Meteor Shower, and warm up with some hot cocoa. It is an open time frame, come anytime between 5-9pm on Friday and Saturday and from 5-8pm on Sunday.

Save the Dates!

Friday Dec 13...5-9pm

Saturday Dec 14 ...5-9pm

Sunday Dec 15 ...5-8pm

- Saturday is Family Night! At the cabin, string popcorn or make a pinecone birdfeeder ornament for our tree. Back at the Center, make a nature inspired craft in the building.
- Friday and Sunday are open to all, but with no additional crafts in the building or at the cabin.
- Trail length is 1 mile with an option to extend the hike with a 1/2 mile loop through the Wege Natural Area Preserve. And if you must, RED light flashlights only please .
- No dogs please for this event.
- Additional parking will be available at the high school. Luminaries will mark the path from the high school to the WWC.
- COST: a $5/person OR $20/family suggested donation is requested at the trail head. Hot cocoa available for purchase. THANK YOU for your support!
- The Luminary Hike may be canceled on short notice due to LAS school order, governmental order or other emergency.
- To VOLUNTEERS NEEDED or DONATE—Thank you!
